

1. Did you make a serious effort to understand the text?
2. Did you work with classmates on homework problems?
3. Did you attempt to outline each homework question before discussing it with classmates?
4. Did you participate actively in homework group discussions?
5. Did you consult with the instructor/teach assistants when you were having trouble?
6. Did you understand all of your homework problem solutions before the assignment was handed in?
7. Did you ask in class for explanations of homework problems that were unclear to you?
8. If you had a study guide, did you carefully go through it before the test and convince yourself you understood all of the material?
9. Did you attempt to outline lots of problem solutions quickly without spending time doing the algebra?
10. Did you go over the study guide and problems with classmates and quiz one another?
11. If there was a review session, did you attend and ask questions about any concepts or ideas that you were unsure of?
12. Did you get a reasonable night's sleep before the test?